Extra Base Hitting by Pipp, Peck and High Counts in New York Victory.

Feature Facts for the Fans

Heinie Groh's homer in the first inning won for the Reds. It was the only run.

Myers, of the Athletics, issued nine bases on balls. The Athletics played the Tigers. The Tigers won.

Called upon to save the game for the Dodgers, Jack Coombs made a hit in the eleventh, which boosts the percentage of the Brooklyn boys.

Rain halted the Giants, but the defeat of the Phillies did a bit to help McGraw's club.

GRAYLING WINS WITH OWNER AT HELM ON SOUND

Larchmont Club's Spring Regatta Sailed Under Lowering Skies.

By CAPTAIN J. C. SUMMERS.

Long Island Sound was fairly alive with yachts yesterday afternoon, their white sails showing from shore to shore as they raced for the prizes offered by the Larchmont Yacht Club in its spring regatta.

Sixty sloops and three schooners crossed the starting line off the breakwater after a tedious wait of an hour or more for wind enough from any quarter to fill the sails of the waiting fleet. It was by sheer "Larchmont" that they were able to finish, for a big black rain squall was before the yachts had covered the second half of the course.

In a light breeze from the south-southwest, the schooners were sent southward first at 1:40 o'clock. With her boom eased to port and her ballast set, E. W. Clark's Iroquois led the way a few seconds after the signal, with the Miladi, owned by George W. Scott, the Miladi, owned by George W. Scott, the Miladi, owned by George W. Scott.

RECORDS SMASH UNDER ATTACKS OF SCHOOLBOYS

Three Marks Established in Elementary Title Meet in Flatbush.

The youngsters of Public School 62, of the East Side, again captured the point trophy the annual elementary schools championships of the Brooklyn Athletic League, held on Brooklyn Field yesterday. Leading the way with a total of 18 points the Manhattan boys defeated thirty-four other school teams.

In second place was Public School 40, of the Bronx, with 15 points, while Public School 10, of Manhattan, which held the title two years ago, was in third position with 14 points.

Over 1,500 lads were down for competition, the large entry demanding the unusually large number of elimination heats. The finishes were close, and the place was a bedlam of noise when the relay races were in progress.

Dorison, of Public School 62, was the first to shock Father Time, when he captured the 60-yard dash for 100-pound boys in 8.4 seconds. This mark clipped one-fifth of a second off the existing record, which was established by H. Kaluber, of Public School 23, Bronx, on June 10, 1910.

THE SPORT By Grantland Rice

LIGHT

The hard boy desired to know some years ago "What is so rare as a day in June?" has been pretty well answered here lately. Almost any day in January or February.

Ed Walsh.

We often wonder how Ed Walsh feels about it; in perfect physical health, only thirty-four years old, one of the most ambitious pitchers that ever lived, one of the keenest for hard work, yet crowded out of the game for life because the elastic in his great arm has been worn a bit too thin.

Walsh to-day should be one of the great stars of the game with three or four fine years left. It is hard enough to quit at the allotted time, the appointed hour, but it is hardest of all to be forced out through one defect that came from an overzealous loyalty and a love of the game.

Overwork.

Note the difference between Eddie Plank and Ed Walsh. Plank is far below Walsh in physique and stamina. His pitching lacked the ease of the Big Red. But Plank was worked wisely. He knew about what he could stand, and from twenty-five to thirty games a year was his limit, while Walsh was working from fifty to sixty-five.

The answer is that Plank is still a star at forty-one and Walsh is through at thirty-four. "There are times," says Fred Merkle, "when you can tie the game, but you can never beat it."

But It Doesn't Follow.

"Jerry Travers," says an exchange, "will have little chance to make a good showing in the amateur golf championship at Merion, because he has played very little golf this season."

The logic of this statement is overthrown by the facts in the case. Last summer Bob Gardner played very little golf, entering but one one-day tournament. John G. Anderson never had a golf club in his hand from June 19 up to his arrival in Detroit. Yet the two finalists were Gardner and Anderson, the two who undoubtedly had played less golf than any others of the elect.

You may recall Hughie Keough's definition of form. "Form," he wrote, "is the brief interval between getting ready and going stale." And this brief interval, if the proper skill is there, can frequently be reached properly in a fairly short time of preparation.

Collins, Baker and McInnis.

Frank Baker, Eddie Collins and Stuffy McInnis, as related before, have a combined batting average so far around .220. It has been suggested by several experts that Baker misses Eddie Collins, who was wont to get on frequently and thereby harass and annoy the pitcher. But how does this explain the slump of Collins and McInnis? It has also been suggested that the three, while wondrously together, miss the combined inspiration and aid when separated.

Yet last season, while separated, Collins batted around .300, with McInnis well up above the .300 mark. It is easy enough to understand that a pitcher who was forced to face these three men in a row, on the same club, would find the combined task beyond him, would therefore be unable to centre his entire attention on any one man. This being so, why should Collins and McInnis, 100 miles apart, have moved along serenely last season as Baker spaded this yielding earth and weeded out the onion beds?

The Anguish Record.

This world is full of a number of things—But can make one sadder than slaves—or kings; But the saddest thing of them all, to me, Is to that first one off the tee.

That Cleveland ball club may be a pennant club, but it isn't getting very much hearty laughter from at least seven clubs in the American League. Not hearty enough to be called a guffaw, anyway.

We have just read an article on golf entitled "How to Correct Slicing and Pulling." One of the best ways we know is to try tripping 'em for a spell.

A boy was recently arrested in New York and treated as a criminal. This should make him later on in life accustomed to having an off day on a losing club.

TIE FOR FIRST PLACE IN BIG CHESS MATCH

Final games in the Washington Heights handicap tournament of the Empire City Chess Club yesterday resulted in a tie for first place in the first section between Philip Lipschitz, brother of a former United States champion, now deceased, and Dr. A. Freundlich, who scored 15½ to 2½.

F. L. Hunt, with 15½ to 3½, was placed third, and A. Nelson, with 14 to 2, fourth. The other prize winners were W. Thompson, 13½ to 5½; M. Demby and W. Treiber, with 12 to 7 each; H. Hirsch and E. J. Gibling, with 11 to 8 each.

In the second division Dr. S. Buchenholz and W. Rhinelandt shared the chief honors, with 13½ to 3½ each. The remaining prize winners were L. Katzenstein, 12½ to 4½; Dr. R. W. Pettit, 12 to 5; T. Hennessey, J. Morrison and E. J. Falk, each 11 to 6; H. Martens and C. J. Murphy, each 10 to 7.

Rain Postpones Golf Match

Newton, Mass., June 17.—The play-off of the tie between P. J. Doyle, of the South Shore Field Club, and M. J. Brady, of the Oakley Country Club, both professionals, for the state open golf championship, was postponed to day until July 10.

The links of the Brae Burn Country Club were soaked by rain that lasted all day.
